The following are court imposed conditions of conduct for participation in King County's Electronic Home Detention (EHD) Program. Compliance with these conditions of conduct shall be monitored by the King County Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention (DAJD), Community Corrections Division, as specified herein. Your continued participation in EHD is subject to strict compliance with the following conditions:

Sentenced offenders who violate their EHD Conditions of Conduct Order shall be subject to the graduated sanction violation process. The sanction will be determined by the EHD sanctioning grid according to the severity level of the violation and the number of violations committed. The range of possible sanctions include administrative sanctions delivered by program staff up to a limited stay of 48 hours in jail to be administered immediately without a hearing. If the violation you commit results in a sanction that falls outside of the sanctioning grid, you will be immediately removed from the Community Corrections Program and graduated sanctions violation process and placed into secure detention to await a hearing. If you request a hearing to contest a violation or sanction, you will be removed from the Community Corrections Program and graduated sanctions violation process and placed in secure detention until the hearing occurs.

1. You shall commit no crimes. DAJD shall monitor bookings into the King County Correctional Facility and the Maleng Regional Justice Center for violations of any local, state, federal law or court order. Any booking into the King County Correctional Facility or the Maleng Regional Justice Center resulting in a new criminal charge being filed after the date of this order will result in your removal from EHD and incarceration into secure detention.

2. You must not remove the EHD monitoring equipment that was placed on your person or in your home. You must keep the monitoring equipment free of interference or physical damage. You must return the equipment upon termination or completion of EHD. Tampering with, interfering with, disabling, stealing, physically damaging or destroying the EHD monitoring equipment will result in removal from EHD and incarceration into secure detention.

3. You shall not use controlled substances without a valid prescription and shall not consume alcohol beginning from the date of this order. Any use of controlled substances, other than as prescribed by a physician, will be considered a violation. You will submit to urinalysis testing as ordered, including a baseline urinalysis to determine the levels of THC within 5 days of beginning participation in EHD and if the THC level does not decrease in your next urinalysis test, this will be considered a violation. DAJD shall monitor compliance with this condition by random urinalysis and breathalyzer testing []1 []2 times every 30 days. If you violate this condition or fail to submit to testing on demand you will be subject to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

4. You shall attend all court ordered therapy and treatment. You must provide a Release of Information to DAJD to verify your compliance. DAJD shall make phone contact with the therapy and treatment providers []1 []2 times every 30 days to verify compliance. If you violate this condition you will be subject to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

5. You shall attend work or school. You must provide DAJD with a time sheet to be completed upon arrival and departure by a representative at your work or school. You must present this time sheet to DAJD staff when requested. Also, DAJD shall monitor compliance with the terms of this condition by contacting the employer or school []1 []2 times every 30 days. If you violate this condition you will be subject to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

6. You shall be on time when reporting to meetings with DAJD staff. Sixty (60) minutes late or more will subject you to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

7. You must arrange for the employer to directly mail your wages to the DAJD caseworker. Employer managed direct deposit may be exempt from mailing provided it is authorized by EHD staff. Failure to abide by this condition will subject you to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

8. You shall not forge a document or provide false information to DAJD staff. Forging a document, or providing false information actually known to DAJD staff will subject you to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

9. You must comply with the curfew and curfew conditions set by DAJD staff. The EHD monitoring equipment will monitor your daily adherence to the curfew. Leaving your residence early or returning late without DAJD pre-authorization will violate the curfew. Sixty (60) minutes late or more will subject you to a sanction according to the sanctioning grid provided to you at sentencing.

10. You must obtain pre-approval to work overtime. Failure to secure pre-approval for overtime work will result in removal from EHD and placement into Work Education Release (WER).

11. You shall maintain an active, primary telephone line with long distance service. DAJD staff must be provided with a current phone number. Special features or an answering machine on the telephone line used for EHD monitoring equipment is prohibited. Changing the primary phone number without DAJD authorization or adding special features or an answering machine to the primary phone line will result in removal from EHD and placement in WER.

12. You will be removed from EHD and placed in WER if you receive three written warnings in a 30 day period for being less than 60 minutes late in violation of condition 5.
